What Others Say About Results From Herald Want Ads

No. 21.

Hotel St. Paul. Columbus Av. and 60th St. THE NEW YORK HERALD

ritlemen:

The writer had occasion to dispose of a Dodge Coups some time age. Ads to this effect were insorted in several New York dailies, among them The New York Herald, in which the notice speared for three days.

Results from the other papers used were very poor, this no doubt being due to the very poor condition of the used car market at the present time. The Herald, however, was instrumental in putting me in teach with several prospects, one of whom finally bought my car at a very entifactory price.

Taking everything into consideration, I feel that the Herald has performed a remarkable feet.
